PROCEDURE TO ORGANIZE ANY EVENT UNDER THE WAKO SANCTIONING

Any promoter wishing to organize an event under the sanctioning of WAKO must first ask for the authorization from his/her National Federation affiliated to WAKO.

The president of the National Federation (who will be responsible for the payment of the sanctioning fee to the WAKO) must then inform the WAKO HQ which – in accordance with the promoter - will name a chief referee for the event.

The chief referee named by WAKO HQ will be responsible to make sure that all safeties used by competitors in the event will be only the products of the following brands:

TOP TEN

ADIDAS

GREEN HILL

SAP

TOP RING

KWON

BARRUS

WAKOGEAR

Products of any other brands than the ones above mentioned WILL NOT BE ALLOWED in any tournament under the WAKO sanctioning from 1st January 2011.

Any questions can be forwarded to WAKO HQ.

Referee seminars

In all WORLD CUPS and major events, WAKO international Referee Commission will organize a referee seminar. In all events sanctioned by WAKO, the WAKO HQ will name a chief referee who will be in charge to run them.

Sanctioning Fee

As mentioned in our mail dated 8th October, all official tournaments in WAKO Calendar have to pay a sanctioning fee. For a tournament up to 500 competitors the sanctioning fee is 500 EURO. From 500 to 1000 competitors the fee is 1000 EURO, for 1000 to 2000 competitors the fee is 2000 EURO. For World Cups we will operate with separate agreements.

Any questions can be forwarded to WAKO HQ.

Official invitations

Please be aware of groups or private persons misusing invitations from our events to exploit trafficking. We have, sorry to say, experienced some incidents this year which have caused a lot of problems to various promoters. Please remember to communicate with the official federation in order to avoid these problems
